He dislikes his stepfather, who projects his own childhood dreams of space travel on an unwilling Virgo. And he s stuck babysitting his bright, precocious little sister, Lyra. While searching the local park for his lost pet snake, Virgo and Lyra encounter two odd street kids. Scorpio, a tough, guarded kid who s estranged from his father, and Biham, who looks like he just stepped off a spaceship. Lyra feels drawn to the strange and malnourished boy and cajoles Virgo to take him home. Scorpio tags along. When a threatening cadre of ET hunters offers a reward for the capture of an extraterrestrial, Virgo, Lyra, and Scorpio begin to wonder if Biham is, indeed, from outer space. If so, they need to keep him safe-and, ultimately, get him home. Their time s limited. Enemies are closing in, and Biham needs space food. If they can t get him home fast, he s going to starve. A fast-paced adventure with a focus on science and the universe s many wonders, The Weird Adventures of Virgo Capella reminds readers that everyone-even aliens-needs understanding friends. Original and fun, with an impressive list of baddies. Join Virgo and his pals on this wild and wacky adventure, as they experience science in a whole new way. -Angela Dorsey, author of numerous juvenile fiction books published in Canada and in various countries.
