Print on Demand .When I first began to walk with God, I never knew of anything that might be hidden from my spiritual understanding. I never even knew that anything could be hidden from my spiritual understanding. I never knew that I could become taught to hear spiritually, I also never knew that I could become taught, to be led by the Spirit of God. I never knew that Gods spiritual blessings of many were hidden from us as, a Christian. I never knew that these things had, to be revealed unto us by the Holy Spirit. I never knew that I could grow up spiritually. I never knew that I could be, entered into the works of the Holiest of All or that I could be baptized by fire or that I could be taught by the holy Spirit, to find the knowledge of God. I never knew that I could be given understanding, from being introduced unto the knowledge of God. I never knew that I could have more than one ministry calling, revealed and manifested unto me. I...
