GONE On a rainy night, Crystal's husband disappears while fetching their car. She waits outside the theater they've just left, wondering why he's taking so long. Should she go in search of him or will they pass and miss each other on the way? Her mind races with the terrible possibilities that may have befallen him. The truth is far more terrible than she can imagine. RING RING Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, is desperate. It's January 13, 1887, and today is the day the patent for the telegraphic transmitter will be granted. Bell is racked with guilt. If not for a mysterious phone call from more than a hundred years in the future, he would have nothing to patent. Instead, Elisha Gray's name would have gone down in history. Where did the mysterious phone call originate? Can Bell live with the choice he makes? Take a trip through a time-twisted history. TO BE OR NOT TO BE Once we hit the Desson Tipping Point, there was...
