Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In May 2009, President Barack Obama announced the Global Health Initiative (GHI), a comprehensive effort to reduce the burden of disease and promote healthy communities and families around the world. Through the GHI, the United States Government will help partner countries improve health outcomes, with a particular focus on improving the health of women, newborns and children. The President's Malaria Initiative (PMI) is a core component of the GHI. PMI was launched in June 2005 as a 5-year, $1.2 billion initiative to rapidly scale up malaria prevention and treatment interventions in high burden countries in sub-Saharan Africa. In December 2006, Zambia was selected as a PMI country. Since then, Zambia has received approximately $151 million in PMI funding. Although there are signs of improvement, malaria continues to be a major cause of morbidity and mortality in Zambia and control of the disease remains one of the government's highest priorities. Overall, the number of reported malaria cases (clinical and confirmed) to the National Health Management Information System (HMIS) increased from 3,250,128 to 4,892,813 (2009- 2013). The reported...
