Excerpt: . reported? A. No, sir; I do not. I think though, it is somewhere in the seventies. Mr. Devlin: Since you have been asked your opinion on some matters of law; Mr. Langhorne, I will ask you if you consider that provision of the Constitution referring to the prohibition of the Legislature refunding any money has any application to moneys paid into one fund, and then the Legislature ordering it paid into another fund of the State Treasury? A. I do not think it has. Every Legislature passes laws refunding money. Now, as to the moneys that were paid into the Emigration Fund, collected by the State, there is a bill-pending now to pay that into the General Fund. That, I think, means repayment rather than refunding, under the Constitution. The Chairman: We desire to find out now when these moneys were paid to...
