THE VOICE OF VATICAN II: WORDS FOR OUR CHURCH TODAY

Liguori Publications,U.S., United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 180 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. At the turn of this century, Pope John Paul II called for a new season of engaging the sixteen documents of the Second Vatican Council. Although these documents are part of the Church s official teaching, reading the constitutions, degrees, and declarations can be daunting, especially for the average Catholic. In The Voice of Vatican II, Peter A. Huff uses the cathedral as metaphor to help readers hear and relate the documents to their experience today. Beginning at the altar with the Council s first document, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, he explores each in turn, explaining their significance today. The pilgrim departs a great cathedral rejuvenated, writes Huff. What awaits the sincere reader of Vatican II texts is a life-changing encounter with the living Church and the Church s living Lord.
