Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Basil is in love with Emily before they meet in person. He accepts the doubtful task of tutoring Hedgeny, the university s star athlete, when he learns Emily will be co-tutor. The three are young, naive, and full of life. They click and are soon known on campus as The Mighty Three. Hedgeny is finally meeting academic grade requirements, much to the relief of school administrators. Just as important, his behavior improves. Though still active in local bars and campus parties, he has ceased to run riot. Basil and Emily enjoy his notoriety, bask in the penumbra of his star-status glow. One afternoon, hopelessly in love with Emily, Basil decides to quit The Mighty Three. Emily loves them both, he and Hedgeny, has told him so herself. Competing with the superstar, the Adonis, is out of the question. Considering himself the lesser man, Basil steps away. He leaves Emily on a blanket next to the river where they have been watching Hedgeny do the heretofore impossible, swim across it and back. The next day Emily is found in her dorm room in a coma and no one knows why. Frustrated in their attempts to reach her, having exhausted tried and true procedures, doctors consult with her parents. There is a controversial procedure, a stimulus under experimentation, the Cranial Loop. They make the decision to go forward and give it a try. A top psyche student, Basil applies for and is granted a position as assistant to the procedures. A student on an academic scholarship, he is allowed to move into a room in the psyche building. He is paid a small stipend to act as caretaker of the...
