

Rommels Black Box: Trilogy of Michael Mickey Ross

By Mr. Richard H Scholer

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 276 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. Rommels Black Box is a story about the most revered treasure of The Desert Fox, Field Marshall Irwin Rommel. The black box contains those things that were most cherished by the Field Marshall. It was part of an array of spoils seized during the African Campaign segment of WW II. The box changed hands a few times before coming to its half century resting place. After sitting for fifty plus years the box was on the move again and immediately the killings started just as they had in the past when the box did not have a home. The book is about retired NYPD homicide Detective Michael Mickey Ross who inadvertently, as a private investigator, becomes involved in the search for the black box. The theme of the story centers on the treasure of the Desert Fox and the surreptitious relationship that existed between the Field Marshall and a USAAC (Army Air Corp.) General that was in charge of the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater. The treasure flown by the USAAC from Tunisia, off the north-east coast of Africa, never made it...
